

NDSCS awards an additional 18 scholarships to area students

North Dakota State College of Science recently awarded academic scholarships to an additional 18 incoming 2016 NDSCS freshmen from three states.

The scholarships recognize and reward students for academic achievement, test scores and participation in extracurricular and other volunteer activities. The scholarships – awarded for $1,000 or $500 – are applicable during the 2016-17 academic year. The honorees include: Max Glueckert, NDSCS Foundation Scholarship, $500; Amanda Ronan, NDSCS Foundation Scholarship, $1,000, Breckenridge, Minnesota; Katie Tschakert, NDSCS Foundation Scholarship, $1,000, Kent, Minnesota; Shalyn Murack, NDSCS Foundation Scholarship, $1,000, Cayuga, North Dakota; Taylor Chapin, NDSCS Foundation Scholarship, $1,000, Forman, North Dakota.